Meet the person: Silke Frank

Silke Frank, otherwise known as Miss Hydrogen, has been active in the Hydrogen industry for the past 20 years. Having started out in the events sector, she has organized over 60 Hydrogen events around the globe since 2004. From 2020, Silke Frank and her team provided infotainment and support on all matters concerning Hydrogen to many thousands of people – digitally and interactively through webinars and with Moderations and Keynotes at partner events.

She maintains one of the largest personal H2 networks, based on mutually supportive and long-standing relationships. Silke Frank is an expert and empathetic communicator and networker. She guides institutions, companies, associations and policymakers interested in Hydrogen toward a prosperous Hydrogen future. One of the things that is particularly important to her is making her clients happHY!

Her motto:

Nothing else in the world is so powerful as an idea whose time has come. (Victor Hugo)

Meet the entrepreneur: Hydrogen Moves GmbH – Business to Society

In May 2022 Silke Frank founded Hydrogen Moves GmbH. True to the company slogan “Push the Market!”, she and her colleagues ensure their clients are successful in Hydrogen through their role as independent and proactive marketers (www.hydrogen-universe.com) and strategic Hydrogen consultants (www.hydrogen-moves.de). “We listen, think and act alongside you and for you – both locally and internationally. Our experience, well-established connections and personal contacts around the world are channeled into your success!”

Meet the Vice President: honorary position at the German Hydrogen Association DWV

Since December 2020 Silke Frank has been serving at a national level as Vice President of the German Hydrogen Association (Deutscher Wasserstoff-Verband (DWV e. V.)). In December 2022, she was reelected onto the steering committee by a significant majority, confirming her appointment as Vice President. In her role she is passionate about communication, representation, member relations and bringing together the right partners.
